Lesson-Sermon Topic Revealed

Spiritual understanding en-dream-narrative" declares Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." She continues, "The dream has no reality, no intelligence, no mind; therefore the dreamer and dream are one, for neither is true nor real" (p. 530). A Scriptural text from Isaiah (29:7,8) reads, "The multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, . . . shall be as a dream of a night vision. It shall even be as when a hungry man dreameth, and behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty; . . . so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against Mount Zion."

TRAVEL SMILES

By Merry Miles

The child on the Greyhound bus was four, and bright as a cricket. "I can read the signs," she chirped, and demonstrated on the next one we passed. "It says twenty-seven miles." "What else?" I asked. "Oh, I can only read how far," she said, "but not where to!" Everyone likes Greyhound travel because it's so intimate and personal as well as low in cost. You're close to everything—scenery, people, the towns, cities and countryside. If you're getting a few days or a couple of weeks off this fall, ask Greyhound for free literature on the latest Merry Miles Vacations. You can go anywhere, because Greyhound serves all 48 states. There are pre-planned trips in the West, to all the national parks, around the U. S. and also to Canada, Mexico and the Caribbean. Prices are surprisingly low because Greyhound fares are so low. For example, a 13-day vacation to the Pacific Northwest and Canada costs only $111.70, double-room rate, per person, plus tax, from Long Beach. That includes hotel rooms, sightseeing in San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Vancouver and Victoria, steamship fares, and travel via Redwood Empire, Oregon Coast and Shasta-Cascade Wonderland. See Greyhound or your travel agent. So long for now. This is Merry Miles saying, "I'll be seeing you, and you'll be seeing America — best — by Greyhound!"
